	1.	In late November the Peiping Government authorities ordered the Kwangtung and Fukien Military District commands to collect all U.Smade weapons from their areas and turn them over to the Central Government. The troops are to be given Chinese and Japanese weapons in exchange. In early December the Fukien and Kwangtung authorities started carrying out this order.
	2.	On the morning of 1 December the Soviet warship Ya-sha-fu-chi (生沙夫基),* a ship of approximately 1,500 tons, was in the Hut'iaomen (113-, 22-) area. The ship was en route to Hainan, carrying approximately 400 Chinese civil engineering students from Canton universities and a number of surveying instruments.
	3.	On 1 December approximately 1,200 immates from Canton prisons were sent by rail to build billets in Ch'uchiang (113-33, 24-50), where most Kwangtung provincial officials in Canton are being moved.
	4.	A small number of Kwangtung Government offices are moving to the Nanhslung (114-17, 35-13) and Jenhua (113-43, 25-08) areas.
